

Notes:

1. Just as everyone has different side hustle goals, everyone is going to have different side hustle values. You may need to adjust your score sheet to reflect your personal values.

For example, if you place a high value on profitability, then it should account for more than 20% of your total score. For example, if you place a high value on profitability, then it should account for more than 20% of your total score.